

SHOW JUMPING

Course builder: Mr. John Farrell

Judges: Mrs. Wendy Begley, Mr. Jack Hammerton and Mrs. Sharon Waghorn

Associate Judges: Ms. Sue Eden

Rules:

1. BSJA rules apply to all show jumping classes.
2. Competitors are required to wear the correct number and notify any change of horse/pony or rider to the judges before jumping, failure to do so may incur elimination.
3. Closing date for entries is Monday 13th July 2009
4. Additional entries will only be accepted from competitors who have already entered other jumping classes prior to the closing date. A late entry fee of £2 per class in addition to the fee in the schedule will apply.
5. In the event of insufficient starters, lower prizes may be withheld in accordance with BSJA Rule 76.6 except where the class is fully sponsored.
6. Stallions must be identified on the entry forms and handled in accordance with BSJA rules for stallions, this includes Rule 82.21 which covers safety.
7. The organisers and landowners accept no liability for any incident on the show site. All competitors and their attendants are required to have due regard to the health and safety of others at all times.
8. No horses or ponies are to be tied up and left unattended.
9. Mucking out on the show site is strictly forbidden. Please take home all rubbish or dispose of it in the bins provided for the purpose.
10. Practice jumps may only be used by competitors entered in the jumping classes and only in accordance with BSJA rules. At no time may any practice jump be used at heights higher than the competition being run in the ring at the time.
11. The onus is placed upon any rider who suffers a fall to report it to the Show Secretary.
12. See General Show conditions for full rules.
13. RIWAS members means members of the Royal Isle of Wight Agricultural Society. If you are just a BSJA member then you pay the non-member fee as stated on each class.
14. Free tickets to ride are available for Non-BSJA members and horses not currently registered with the BSJA.
